A better world needs better ways

From sustainable packaging to efficient supply chains and local recycling, Visy can help you create better products and reduce waste.

We're helping create a better world where more packaging is made from locally recycled material. Once the packaging is used, it can be recycled and re-made back into new packaging.

The result is bottles made of recycled bottles, boxes made of recycled boxes and cans made of recycled cans, over and over again.

McLaren Vale Wine Show - 2022 Judges

Chair of Judges - Andrew Thomas

Andrew Thomas, son of legendary Bushing Monarch Wayne Thomas, was always destined to work in wine. During his formative winemaking years (and despite being groomed for a possible winemaking career in South Australia) he developed a deep passion for finesse, and the more subtle and savoury structured wines of the Hunter Valley. Andrew began his winemaking journey at Tyrrell's Vineyards under the guidance of Murray Tyrrell. Overseas vintage stints included

Sonoma, Tuscany, Piedmont and Provence. Thomas Wines was established in 1997 with a clear and focused objective to specialise in single vineyard Hunter Valley semillon and shiraz. Since then, Andrew has been Awarded Hunter Valley Winemaker of the Year in 2008 and 2014, with his wines winning numerous awards and trophies over the years.

Andrea Pritzker MW

Andrea Pritzker is a Master of Wine and is the founder of Wine inTuition, a wine education and corporate events business in Sydney. A certified WSET educator, she also works as an independent wine consultant, wine judge, writer and public speaker. Born and raised in Toronto, Canada, she obtained a Diploma in Wine Commerce in Bordeaux, France, before moving to Australia in 2003. Andrea's diverse career in the wine trade has spanned wholesale, retail, fine wine auction, digital marketing and buying. She became a Master of Wine in 2015. Andrea is Australia's Burgundy Wine Ambassador and is also a member of the governing Council for the Institute of Masters of Wine.

Class Comment: A disappointing class with too many unbalanced and forward wines.

11	d'Arenberg	d'Arenberg 2022 The Dry Dam Riesling		WD

Judges: Ian McKenzie, Alex Mackenzie, Pip Anderson, Chris Parsons, Ben Cane

Class Comment: A class of commercial, generally well made wines that just lacked the X factor for higher scores. They probably sell reasonably well but unfortunately don't really register in the fine wine spectrum.

Class 03 - Vermentino and blends of

Judges: Liz Silkman, Alex Mackenzie, Greg Clack, Pete Kennedy, Jarrad Steele

Class Comment: A lovely small bracket of wines. Freshness was a positive. Top wine showed thought out phenolic and acid balance.

10	Fari Vintners	Fari Vintners 2021 Sundial Roussanne

Judges: Liz Silkman, Alex Sherrah, Leigh Ratzmer, Pete Kennedy, Jarrad Steele

Class Comment: Lovely to see a bracket of new emerging white varieties with wines that have been thought about. Awarded Wines had texture, acid and fruit balance. A special mention to the Grenache Gris that was so close to a Gold but was just slightly lacking in fruit persistence to get over the line.

Judges: Tim Dolan, Andrea Pritzker, Greg Clack, Steven Soper, Vaite Teriierooiterai

Class Comment: Wow, what a class! Six callbacks, all with strong support for various reasons. The top wine was pure and austere, but with fantastic texture and length. This is not to be dismissive of those with perhaps more ripeness and winemaking influence, these wines have also been awarded and very narrowly missed out on the trophy. A highlight of the show with many beautiful wines, reflective of the vintage.

A woman with long dark hair is smiling and pouring white wine from a bottle with a white sleeve into a glass. Another person's hand is visible holding a glass of wine in the foreground. The background is slightly blurred, showing a kitchen or dining area.

Infinitely recyclable wine packaging

At Orora, we're working to grow the circular economy. We do this by creating products that can be recycled, in order to be reused again.

Did you know that glass and aluminium are infinitely recyclable? This means that you can recycle them over and over again without any loss of quality.

Judges: Liz Silkman, Ian McKenzie, Alex Mackenzie, Greg Clack, Andrea Pritzker, Leigh Ratzmer, Pete Kennedy, Jarrad Steele, Chris Parsons, Ben Cane

Class Comment: A mixed bag. Top wine showed balance and fruit intensity. There were many wines that seemed over worked or under fruited.

Class 07 - Sparkling Wine

Entry #	Exhibitor	Wine Name	Score	Award
2	Oliver's Taranga Vineyards	Oliver's Taranga Vineyards 2019 The Hunt for Mrs Oliver Methode Traditionnelle Fiano	90	Silver

6	Orbis Wines	Orbis Wines 2022 Pétillant Naturel Shiraz

Class Comment: The top wine shone in what can only be described as a relatively ordinary class. Overt sweetness and/or oak perhaps make for commercially desirable styles, but they tend to lack the purity and precision required for more serious sparkling wines.

Class Comment: Amazing wines from what looks to be an iconic vintage. Best wines were bright, pure fruited with lovely fine tannin. Some wines still too oak dominant, whether these will find a balance only time will tell.

Class Comment: Overall a relatively strong class, but many wines were reflective of the challenging vintage. Hard, sinewy and dry tannins featured at the expense of bright fruit for the non awarded wines. The best wines were bright and seamless with an attentive winemaking approach.

Class Comment: The top wines from this class have retained excellent freshness and depth of fruit. The lesser entries showed some excessive development for their age and lacked the fruit weight to deal with those tough drying tannins.

Class Comment: A relatively tough class to find any real joy. These wines showing quite ripe fruit but many were quite developed for their age. Clearly some tough vintages here for the variety. The top wines showing some quite ripe/dense fruit but the tannin structure just a bit tough for Gold.

Class Comment: A strong class overall, showcasing a diversity of styles and the varietals ability to shine in a strong vintage like 2021. The most compelling wines demonstrated the continued evolution of the style, showing bright florals and red fruit aromatics with a more savoury texture and bright acidity.

Class Comment: Challenging class to judge with so many different varieties competing for the judges attention. The top wines had ripe fruit yet balance and savoury elements, rather than upfront fruit.

Class Comment: Too many wines showed premature development. The two top wines showed power and vibrancy of fruit but lacked persistence to be awarded gold.

Judges: Tim Dolan, Alex Sherrah, Pip Anderson, Steven Soper, Vaite Teriierooiterai

Class Comment: Lovely but challenging class to condense, with a vast array of styles keeping the judges on their toes. Best wines came from the 2021 vintage (no surprises), with excellent brightness and purity. Top two wines couldn't be more different in style, which promoted great conversation. Both were beautiful & complex wines, well done. Weakest wines were from 2020, with the challenging vintage starting to show up in the overall quality of the wines.

Judges: Tim Dolan, Alex Mackenzie, Leigh Ratzmer, Steven Soper, Vaite Teriierooiterai

Class Comment: Lovely class with two wonderful shining lights. Overall the 2020 entries were the weakest wines, displaying some advanced characters. A great display of how well Cabernet does in certain, cooler vintages.

Class Comment: The results speak volumes for Grenache based blends in this region. The top wines were quite stylistically diverse, but all displayed ripe vibrant fruit and delicious texture. Slightly more challenging when it came to judging the older wines with lots of tired, extracted, overripe characters. Best wine in this section had complex structure and fine acid line balanced with pure savoury fruit.

Class Comment: Diversity is the spice of life, but some varieties don't always work together. 2021 a highlight, 2020 a lowlight with lots of tired, advanced wines. Bright, fresh wines with structural complexity were rewarded.

Class Comment: The 100% Medal strike rate says a lot about the quality of this class. The top wines demonstrate the regions ability to produce world class Fortifieds across diverse styles. A pleasure to judge. No spittoons required.

Class Comment: A lovely old wine, still showing freshness and restraint. Great texture, fruit weight and drive. This wine has many years ahead of it.

Bred in Bordeaux. Raised for full-bodied reds.

Class Comment: A strong class overall showcasing a diversity of styles and the varietals ability to shine in a strong vintage like 2021. The most compelling wines demonstrated the continued evolution of the style, showing bright florals and red fruit aromatics with a more savoury texture and bright acidity.

Class Comment: Always a pleasure to judge these entries. The best brackets of the class showed brightness and structural complexity across all three vintages and clearly demonstrated the cellaring potential of the best that McLaren Vale has to offer. The entries where the older vintages showed some excessive development for their years were unfortunately all too easily dismissed. I wonder if we will ever see a bracket of white entered in this class.....
